Saturday 13 May, 1pm

March and rally for justice for the Palestinians after 75 years of ethnic cleansing. Assemble on the steps of St Luke's 'bombed-out' church and march to a rally at Derby Square.

This year marks 75 years since Palestine's 'Nakba' (Arabic for 'catastrophe').

In 1948 the Israeli military campaign forced 750,000 Palestinians to leave their homes. Those who remained in Palestine became second-class citizens and remain so to this day.

Amnesty International and other human rights bodies have concluded that Israel's treatment of the Palestinians amounts to the crime of apartheid.

Europe is applying strict sanctions against Russia because of the Ukraine invasion. Yet there are no sanctions against Israel, which enjoys privileged trading status with the EU and Britain – and is even invited to the Eurovision Song Contest!

Since 2005 there have been public campaigns for Boycott, Divestment and Sanctions to isolate Israel and get a fair deal for the Palestinians.

We invite you to join our actions and make it clear that the Palestinians deserve better.

What else you can do...

- Urge your MP and council candidates to speak out for the Palestinians
- Join the Palestine Solidarity Campaign and Liverpool Friends of Palestine. Get in touch (details below), come to our meetings on the first Wednesday of each month and support our other events.
- Boycott Puma, Hewlett Packard and Israeli goods and services.
