

Bondi Beach Massacre, Palestine timeline

We condemn all acts of antisemitism

The attack on a Chanukah celebration on Sydney's Bondi Beach should be condemned by all supporters of the Palestinians and anti-Zionists. It was an anti-Semitic attack without any justification.

The fact that Zionist organisations in Britain and Australia deliberately set out to associate Jews with Israel's genocide in Gaza is no excuse for attacks on Jews as Jews. But we reject the Zionist narrative:

- In Australia the Queensland Jewish Board of Deputies condemned Palestine solidarity motions passed at Queensland Labour Party conference, branding them anti-Israel and implicitly antisemitic.
- In Israel Netanyahu blamed Australian government policies, particularly the recognition of a Palestinian state, for the massacre.
- UK police cite the Bondi massacre as justification to arrest demonstrators who display or chant slogans such as "globalise the intifada".

Weaponisation of antisemitism

In the UK antisemitism is weaponised by the claim that Palestine Solidarity marches, chants and criticism of Apartheid Israel are antisemitic.

The Palestine Solidarity Campaign stated:

"The widespread attempt across the political establishment to use a grotesque and indefensible violent antisemitic massacre as a weapon to further repress those protesting for the rights of Palestinian people is reprehensible and undermines the fight against antisemitism and broader anti-racist principles."

The illegal occupation of Palestinian Territories, including the siege of Gaza, began long before 7th October 2023. Under international law, an occupied people have the right to resist the occupation, including by the use of force. Targeted attacks on civilians (by both Palestinian and Israeli forces on 7th October) are forbidden, but nothing that happened on 7th October justifies Israel's continued genocide of the Palestinians.
